Dear Miss Tearin:- I have received your six fine cards and I thank you kindly. I am sending you now 6- 5 in separate envelope as "printed matter." Thank you: I am about well again. I congratulate you that you have against the day "says" that your monument will not be disturbed, which must be a great satisfaction to you. Yes, there are two "Surrender" documents." I will explain them to you later. The first was of stone placed on the spot where our Gen'l Pemberton surrendered to Gen'l Grant, but the destructive hacking of relic-hunters caused it to be moved into the National cemetery and to be replaced on the original site by a large cannon, upon which no insult could be made. The latter is the Cannon Secretary at present. Our river, "The Father of Waters," is on the rampage, too, and very high now. Sincerely, Geo. H. Klein, M.
